[Certified on 09th July, 2009]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A PERSON TO BE THE CHIEF OF DEFENCE STAFF WHO SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE CO-ORDINATION OF ACTIVITIES AS BETWEEN THE ARMED FORCES AND THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE; FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHIEF OF DEFENCE STAFF ; TO PROVIDE FOR THE FUNCTIONS OF THE CHIEF OF DEFENCE STAFF ; AND TO PROVIDE FOR MATTERS CONNECTED THEREWITH OR INCIDENTAL THERETO.

BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows :-

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Chief of Defence Staff Act, No. 35 of 2009. The provisions of this Act, other than this section shall come into operation on such date or dates as the Minister may, by Order published in the Gazette appoint (hereinafter referred to as the “appointed date”).

Short title and date of operation.

(2) The provisions of this section shall, in terms of paragraph (1) of Article 80 of the Constitution, come into operation on the date on which the Certificate of the Speaker is endorsed on the Bill.

(3) Different dates may be appointed for bringing into operation different provisions or Parts of this Act.

PART I

APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF OF DEFENCE STAFF

2. (1) The President shall appoint from among the persons presently serving as Commander of the Army, the Commander of the Navy or the Commander of the Air Force as the case may be, an officer to be the Chief of Defence Staff.

Appointment of the Chief of Defence Staff.

(2) The Chief of Defence Staff shall function under the direction, supervision and control of the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister in charge of the subject of Defence (hereinafter referred to as “the Secretary”).

(3) Where an officer serving as the Commander of the Army, the Commander of the Navy or the Commander of the Air Force as the case may be, is appointed as the Chief of Defence Staff, he shall, upon being so appointed, relinquish his position as the Commander of the Army, the Commander of the Navy or the Commander of the Air Force, as the case may be :

Provided that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Army Act (Chapter 357), the Navy Act (Chapter 358) and the Air Force Act (Chapter 359), the person so appointed as Chief of Defence Staff shall, for so long as he holds such position, continue to be a member of the regular force of the service to which he belonged at the time of his appointment under subsection (1) :

Provided further, when such officer relinquishes his position as the Commander of the Army, the Commander of the Navy or the Commander of the Air Force, as the case may be, the officer so appointed shall, from the date of such appointment, be deemed to continue as a member of the regular force of the respective service to which he belonged prior to such appointment, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Army Act (Chapter 357), the Navy Act (Chapter 358) or the Air Force Act (Chapter 359) as the case may be.

(4) The Chief of Defence Staff shall, while so serving in the office of the Chief of Defence Staff, hold the rank of General in the case of an officer of the Army, Admiral in the case of an officer of the Navy, and Air Chief Marshal in the case of an officer of the Air Force.

3. (1) The Chief of Defence Staff shall, subject to the pleasure of the President, hold office for a term of two years.

Term of office
&c., of the Chief of Defence
Staff.

(2) An officer serving as the Chief of Defence Staff shall be eligible to be reappointed in like manner for two more years :

Provided that such period of two years shall be granted by reappointments for one year at a time; provided, the total period of the term of office of the Chief of Defence Staff shall not in the aggregate exceed four years:

Provided further, that in a time of public emergency, the President may reappoint the officer serving as the Chief of Defence Staff for any number of such terms of office.

(3) The Chief of Defence Staff may, by letter addressed to the President in that behalf tender his resignation from the office of Chief of Defence Staff, at any time before the expiry of his term of office.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), a Chief of Defence Staff who tenders his resignation, shall not be relieved of the duties of his appointment, until the acceptance of such resignation by the President is notified to him in writing.

(5) In the event of death, retirement, resignation or disability or removal from office of the Chief of Defence Staff before the expiry of his term of office, the President shall, having regard to the provisions of this section, appoint another officer in his place.

(6) The officer so appointed under subsection (5) shall hold office for the unexpired period of the term of office of the particular Chief of Defence Staff whom he succeeds.

(7) Where a vacancy occurs in the office of Chief of Defence Staff, due to death, retirement, resignation, disability or removal, the President may nominate from among the members of the Committee of the Chief of Defence Staff, a member to temporarily perform the duties and functions of the office of the Chief of Defence Staff in addition to his duties as Commander of the Army, Commander of the Navy or Commander of the Air Force as the case may be, until a successor is appointed or, in the case of absence or temporary disability of the Chief of Defence Staff, until he returns to office or the disability ceases.

(8) A member of the Chief of Defence Staff Committee who is so nominated under the provisions of subsection (7) shall perform the duties and functions of the office of Chief of Defence Staff until a successor is appointed or until the return to office of the Chief of Defence Staff as the case may be.
